When my play was with thee
I never questioned who thou wert.
I knew nor shyness nor fear,
my life was boisterous.

In the early morning thou wouldst call me
from my sleep like my own comrade
and lead me running from glade to glade

Of those days I never cared to know
the meaning of songs thou san-est to me.
Only my voice took up the tunes,
and my heart danced in their cadence.

Now, when the playtime is over,
what is this sudden sight that is come u-pon me?
The world with eyes bent upon thy feet stands
in awe with all its silent stars.
